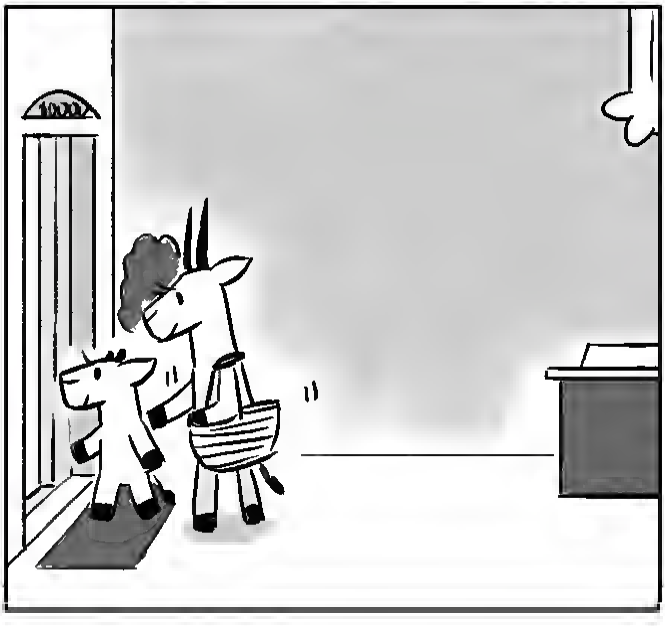
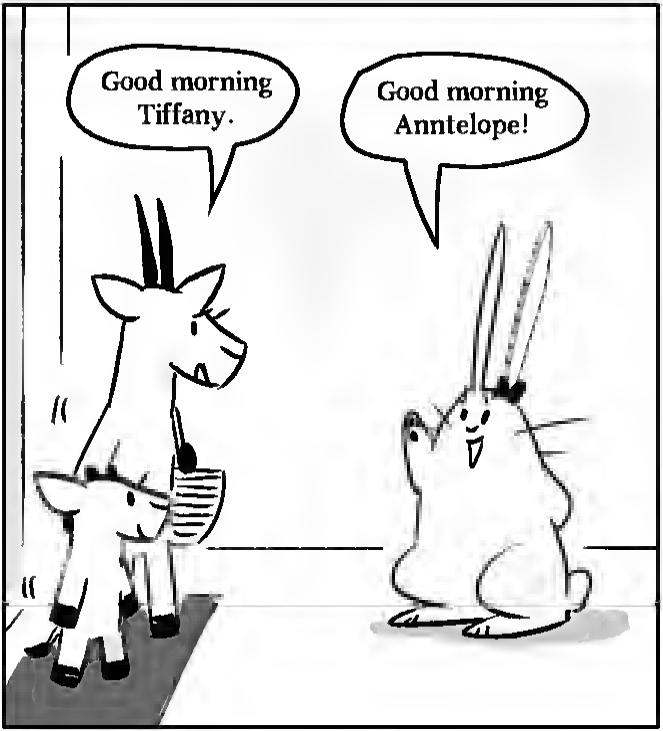
ROAR STREET JOURNAL

Happy Mother's Day

You need to behave well in the office, okay?
I'm going to Mama's workplace today!
Okay!

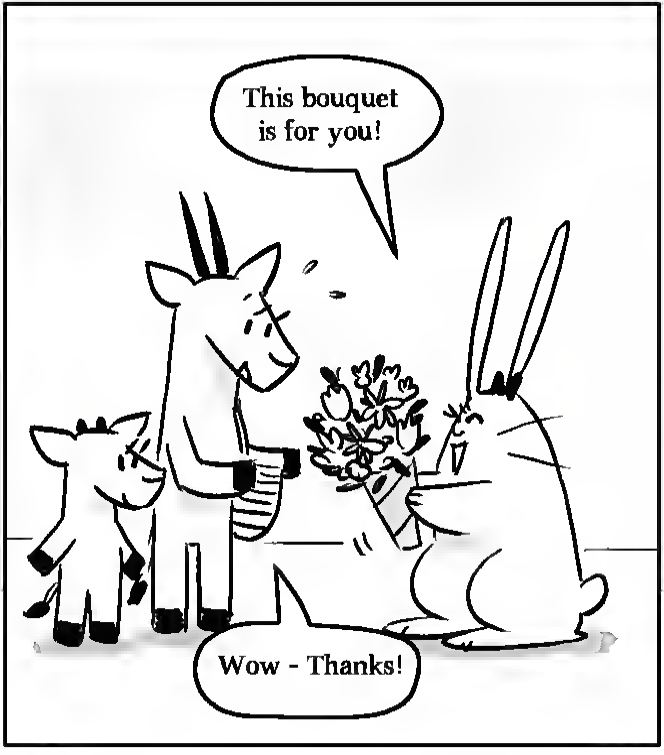


ding!

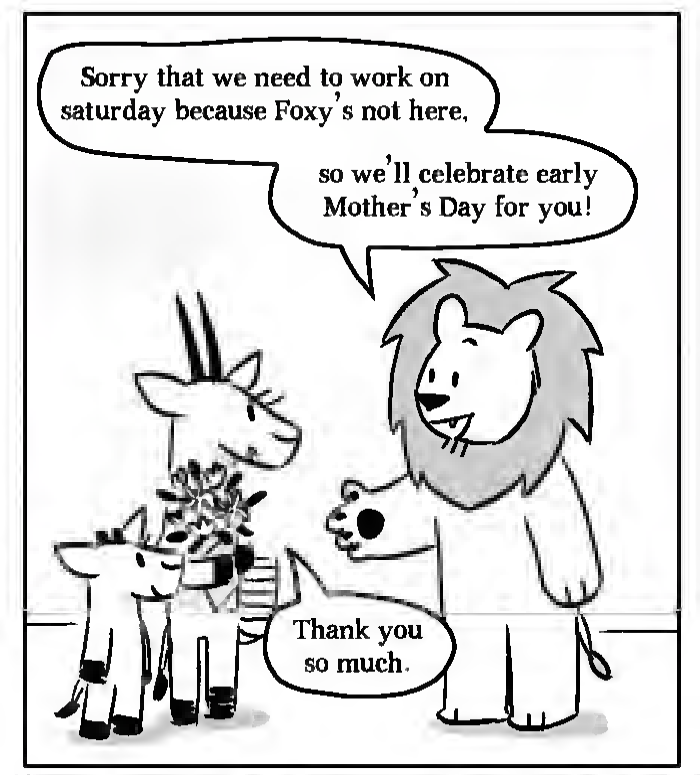


Good morning Tiffany.
Good morning Anntelope!

Happy Mother's Day!



This bouquet is for you!
Wow - Thanks!



Sorry that we need to work on saturday because Foxy's not here, so we'll celebrate early Mother's Day for you!
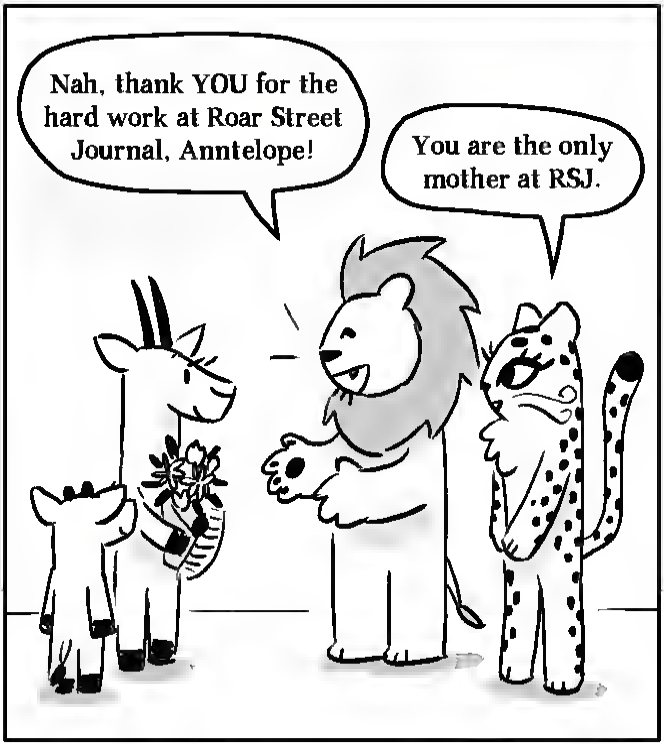
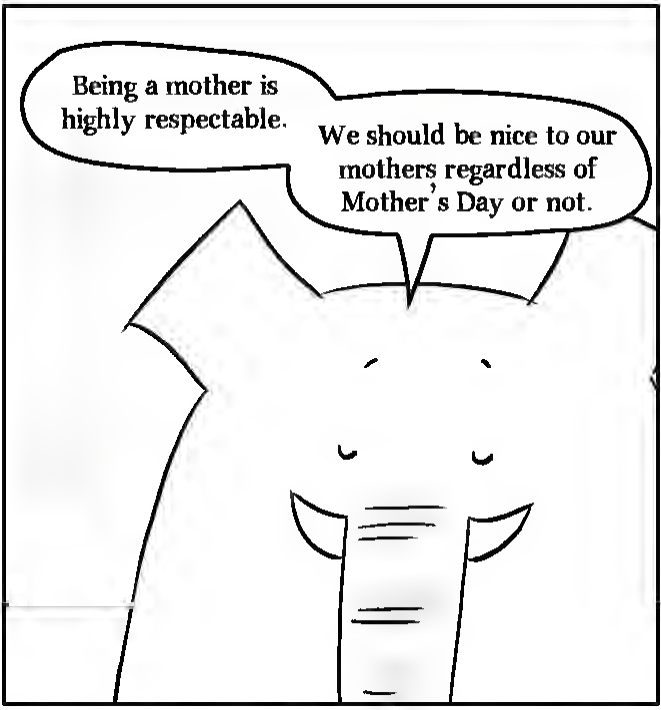
Thank you so much.



Nah, thank YOU for the hard work at Roar Street Journal, Anntelope!
You are the only mother at RSJ.

Be a good girl for your mama, Anna!
Yes I will!

Here are several massage coupons at the zen center I frequent.
Hope you will get the tiredness out and feel refreshed.
Thanks Mr. Elephunk.



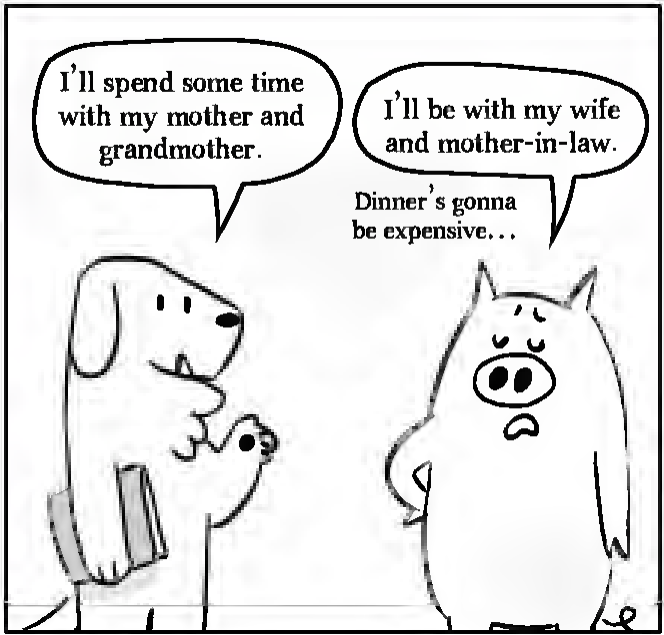
Being a mother is highly respectable.
We should be nice to our mothers regardless of Mother's Day or not.

I'll have a family gathering to celebrate all the mothers in our big family.

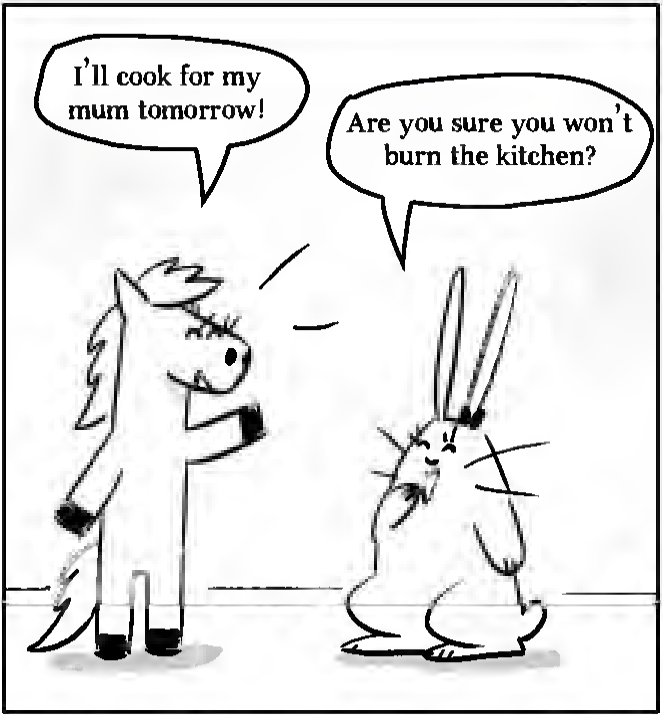
I'll be celebrating Mother's Day with my family tomorrow too!
Me too.

Me too!
Who else is the same?

Same here!
Me.

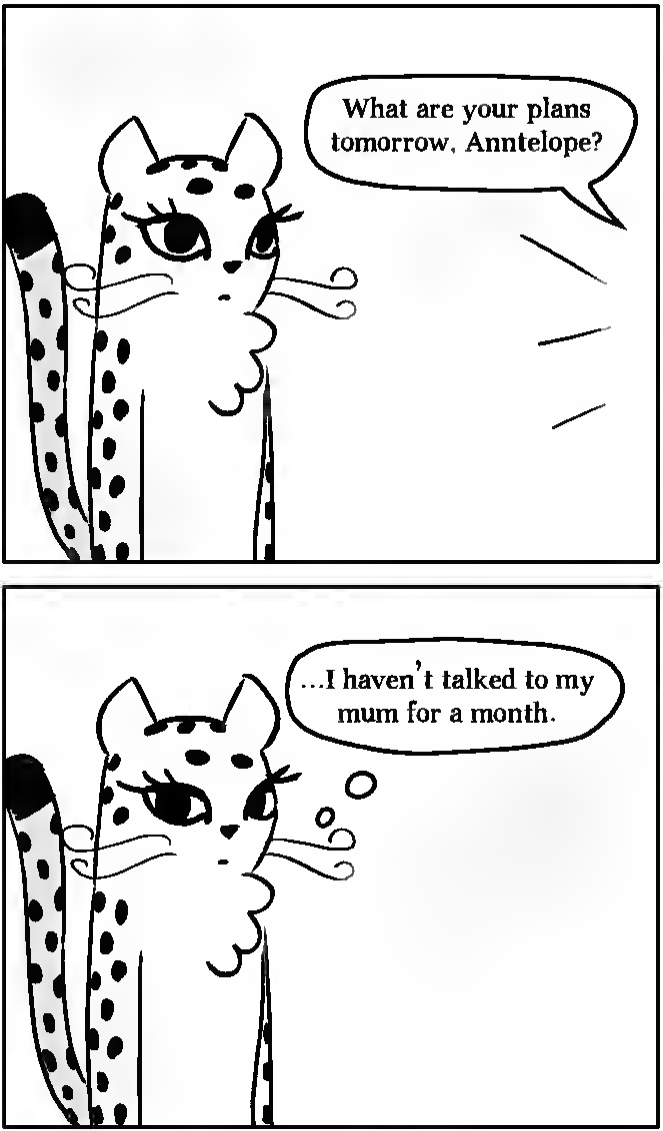


I'll spend some time with my mother and grandmother.
I'll be with my wife and mother-in-law.
Dinner's gonna be expensive...

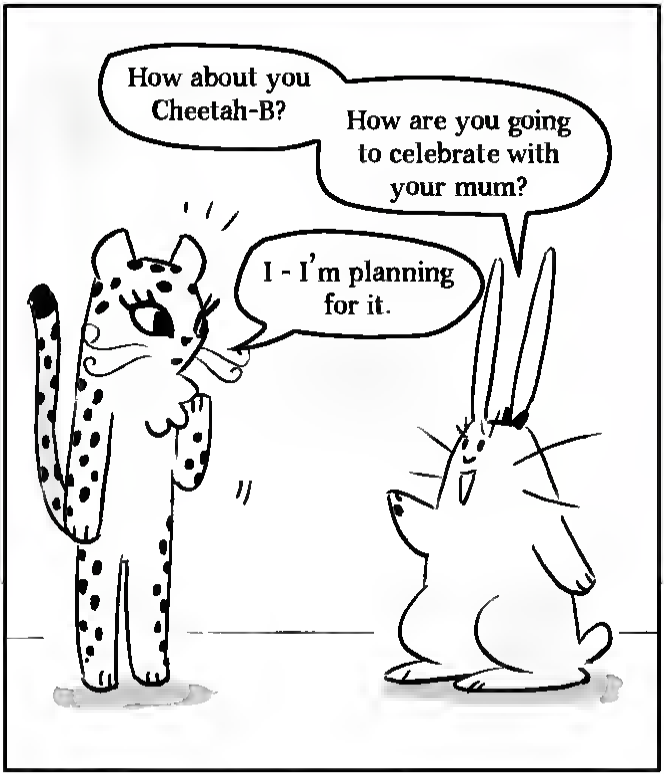


I'll cook for my mum tomorrow!
Are you sure you won't burn the kitchen?

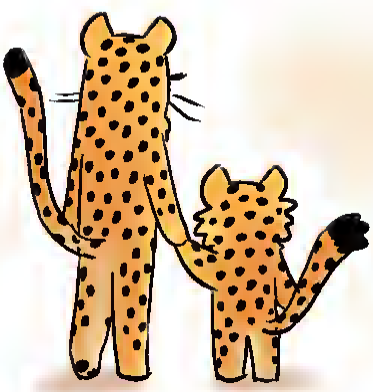
Say that again and I'll burn your kitchen!
ha ha ha!



What are your plans tomorrow, Anntelope?
...I haven't talked to my mum for a month.



How about you Cheetah-B?
How are you going to celebrate with your mum?
I - I'm planning for it.



I have mixed feelings for my mother.

My mother was loving, but she was also very strict.

We must get this song right tonight.
I know you can do this, Cheetah-B

I pride myself being my mother's pearl,

but I also dreaded of her high standards.

No matter how hard I worked,

I always had room to be better.

Now you've won the local contest, let's aim for the inter-state contest.

You've got to be better than others to succeed in life.

I knew my mother loves me,

but every conversation was like a bargain.

I want to go to the school camp.
Okay, then you'll have to spend the next weekend practicing.

As I reached my teenage years,

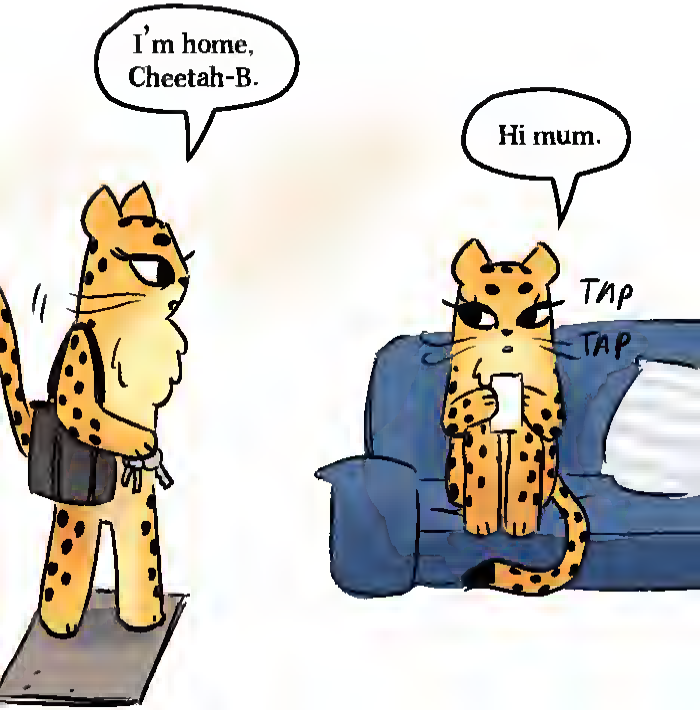
I didn't want to be controlled anymore.

I still got excellent achievements,

but I became cold towards my mum.

Yeah.
Yeah.
Okay.
Bye.

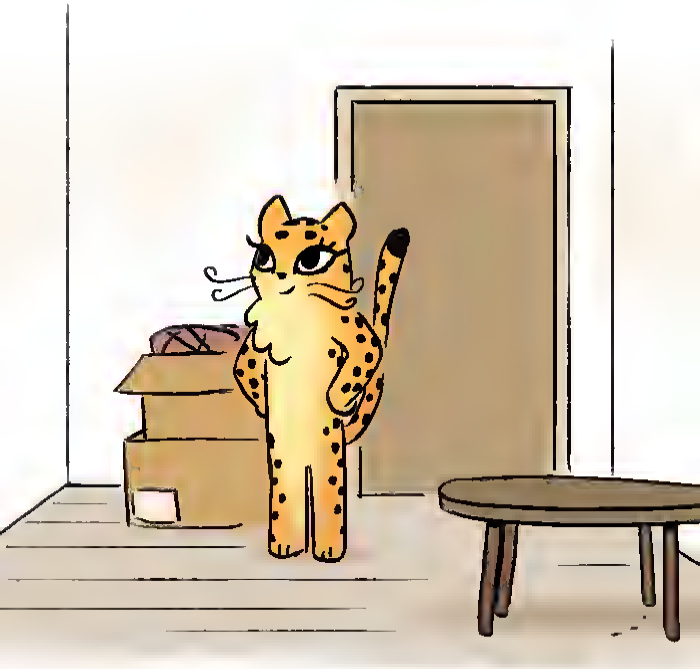
I just wanted to get out and live my own life.



TAP
TAP

I moved out as soon as I got a job,

and seldom talked to my mum after that.



But...

After I entered the society for a while,

I realized some things my mum taught were right.

It's so hard to find a good job!
So much competition... it's like a battlefield!
I wish I had a pretty resume like yours Cheetah-B!

I realized it's difficult to pay the bills and balance life with a full-time job.

LIVE
Tired...
LOVE

I realized it's difficult being a mother.

Wanna join us for friday happy hour?
Sorry, I need to go back home and take care of Anna...
I have to take her to a check up tomorrow morning too...

I began to understand why my mother wanted me to be the best, because I'm her only child and all her hopes are on me.

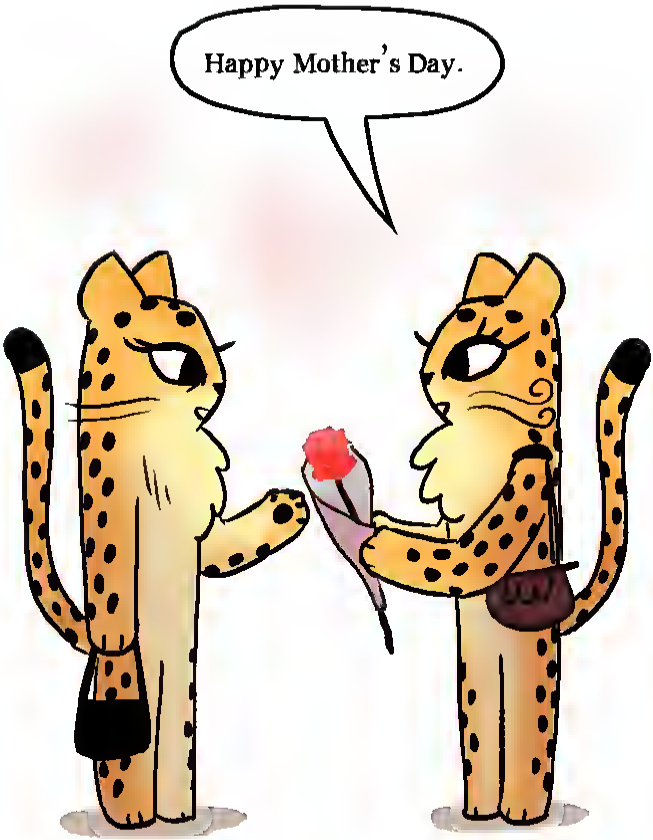
MUM

I still love my mum.

I not as close to my mother like my friends,

but I'll try to be more in touch with my mum.

Little Italy



Happy Mother's Day.

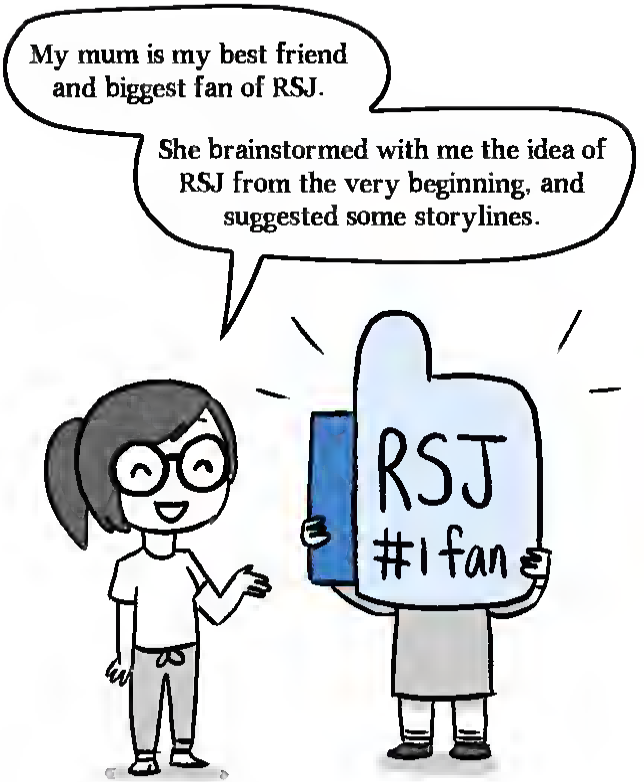
RSJ Behind the scenes

Meet my mother



My mum is my best friend and biggest fan of RSJ.
She brainstormed with me the idea of RSJ from the very beginning, and suggested some storylines.

Hey mum, what do you want for Mother's Day?
Flowers?
No.

Presents?
No. I don't like presents.

Special dinner?
No. I hate conventional Mother's Day celebrations.
Will you stop making a fuss about it?

Alright, I'll give you credit in RSJ.
